GALLERY QUESTION & ANSWER
1. Kellyn Fuller, Jenna Rausch, Miranda Stippich, and Jordan Boyd are from the Dental Hygiene program. They came to talk about patient recruitment. They are starting patient care, but each student has to find patients on their own. They see patients Tuesdays and Fridays. Kellyn asked the senators to get the word out for them. Senator Pitcock asked about price. Kellyn noted it is between $50 and $100, if paying cash. Miranda stated that they can work out a payment plan too. Senator Saahene got his teeth cleaned last semester and thinks the program is great. Senator Perry asked if this was just for students. Kellyn stated that they offer services for anyone who has teeth, whether they are students or community members.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND CORRESPONDENCE

PRESIDENT'S REPORT
President Tingey welcomed everyone back. ASISU Fees have been steady for the last seven years. There is a committee meeting soon to go over the student fees. He needs to decide whether or not ask for an increase. This year, the state is mandating increases in full time staff salaries and benefits. If they increased the fee to cover this increase, it would amount to $1.22 more per students. Senator Perry asked about the increases. Lowell Richards noted that it is mandated by the state. Senator Pitcock stated that Finance talked about the ASISU Fee today and thinks that the fee increase is needed. ASISU hasn’t raised the fee in seven years. President Tingey noted that many other groups are going to face the same problem. He will advocate for the students during the meetings about fees. He wants to keep school as affordable as possible. The “I” Committee met last week. No consensus has been made yet.

CHAIR/COMMITTEE REPORTS
