GALLERY QUESTION & ANSWER
1. Jordan Reed- He thanked the senators for helping out with the Ambush. Checklists are due tomorrow at 5pm. He reminded them to send him a confirmation email when they submit the checklist.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND CORRESPONDENCE
1. Deb Green, ASISU Scholarships- She was involved in the scholarship changes that are going to be brought forward, and she approves of the changes.

PRESIDENT’S REPORT
President Son thanked Chief of Staff Reed, Secretary Sivertsen, and Vice President Tingey for their work on the Ambush. He has heard nothing but good things from people. Numbers were up all around. The Ambush account will have about $20,000 in it. He thanked the senators with their help decorating campus last night for Homecoming week. He thinks the scholarship changes that are being brought forward are great. He would like to see all of the bills pass next week. President Son hopes to see the hourly limit for student workers raised in the next few weeks. The committee working on the “I” on the hill will meet in October. Senator Thayer thanked President Son, Secretary Sivertsen, Vice President Tingey, and Chief of Staff Reed for working on the Ambush. Their hard work was evident and they did a great job. Senator Shelden asked about the revenue for the Ambush. President Son noted that they almost doubled their revenue from last year to this year. Senator McConnell asked if “I” meeting was closed or open to senators. President Son noted that it is a closed meeting, and he is the only student on that committee. Senator Johnson asked about the petitions for the interlocking “I-S.” President Son noted he could bring them to the committee meeting. He also suggested passing a resolution with the senate’s stance on the “I.”

CHAIR/COMMITTEE REPORTS
1. Finance Committee, Senator Valencia- They could not approve one of the matched deposits, since it was from dues raised. MOVE TO APPROVE THE MATCHED DEPOSIT FROM THE ROBOTICS CLUB FOR $400. Valencia/Withers. Roll Call.
