MOTION CARRIED. Finance discussed the line items. Some of the line items could not make any cuts. Finance cut $22,890 from line item budgets. They will use $23,400 from the carryover to cover the rest of the deficit. Senator Harker asked if the cuts were on an existing budget. Senator Son clarified that it is not exactly a budget cut; the line items are being asked to withhold the amount and not spend it. Senator O'Neil asked what will happen if there is any leftover money. They won’t know if there is any leftover money until it is too late to do anything. That money will go into the contingency fund. Senator Son stated that they are trying to minimize the effect on students. They are not likely to have leftover money. Student government took the biggest hit.

2. Rules Committee, Senator Brock- They had nothing to report
3. Appointments and Reviews Committee, Senator Pitcock- They will be meeting after the break.
4. Outreach Committee, Senator Bishop- Tags are in the senate office.
5. Communications Committee, Senator Daniels- They reviewed the results from the app survey. There is strong approval. Almost ten percent added in that they wanted to access Moodle from the app. They are looking at the costs now and will start bringing in companies in the spring. Senator Johnson has set up an ASISU Instagram. KISU is going on. Senator O'Neil encouraged everyone to like the Facebook page and invite others to like it too.
6. Service Committee, Senator Blanscett- ASISU will partner with UPC’s tree lighting to kick off the food drive.

GALLERY QUESTION & ANSWER
1. Chief of Staff Reed told everyone that checklists are due tomorrow. He wants them to get them in before the break. He contacted the university committees for feedback on the senators’ help. Most of the responses he received were positive.
