2. Communications Committee- Senator Doupé- The radio show is going well. Senator Christiaens and Senator Doupé are doing a great job hosting. All clubs are encouraged to participate.
3. Outreach Committee- Senator Brown- She thanked all of the senators for taking pamphlets. March 13 is going to be another dinner with senators night at Turner. That will also be premium night. Senator Brown will have to check with Finance to see about their meeting which would be at the same time. She will also be sending brochures to the other ISU campuses.

GALLERY QUESTION & ANSWER
1. Zandra Higley and Walter Radovitch- The Frank Church Symposium is next week. Zandra and Walter are inviting the senators officially. They are welcome to attend any of the events. The events will be at the performing arts center, and there will be two or three panels each of the days. Walter said there are some really big names coming this year. This year they are trying to expand from political science, so there are topics from all over the academic spectrum. Senator Doupé thanked Zandra and Walter. She also asked senators to look over the list of events and contact their constituents, clubs, and departments. Senator Woodbury asked what the theme was this year. Zandra stated it was leadership and power struggles in the contemporary world. It covers a broad spectrum.
2. Jocelyn Sparks- President of the ISU Feminist Alliance- Jocelyn was here to support Resolution 525. The ISU Feminist Alliance supports gender equality. She thanked Senator Doupé for putting this forward. The club decided unanimously that they should speak up for this gender identity issue. ISU shouldn’t stand for discrimination. Senator Doupé thanked Jocelyn.
3. Ryan Heffner- President of the Sexuality and Gender Alliance- Ryan and his club support Resolution 525. There are always new stories of bullying or harassing someone because of their gender identity. ISU needs to show support for equality and protecting everyone. Senator Doupé thanked Ryan.
4. Ben Harker- Ben encouraged the senators to come on ASISU Speaks if they haven’t yet. It is very important yet simple. He also wanted to support Resolution 525. Lots of students voiced their support of this resolution with only a few exceptions. Ben thinks the senators should support the resolution no matter what the state legislature will do. He had a friend who went through a gender transition and was attacked. The attack was not treated as a hate crime. If the act was passed at the state level, it would make it one.
