This bill is to amend the wording of the Senate Rule Book to provide consistency in verbiage

SENATE RULE BOOK

ARTICLE III—THE SENATE PRO-TEMPORE

A. Election of: The Senate pro-tempo shall be elected no sooner than the first Senate meeting following the Student Senate Training Retreat. Voting shall be done by secret ballot during the regular Senate meeting. The president Senate pro-tempo of the senate shall be elected by a majority of all votes cast. If no ticket receives a majority, a runoff election shall be held between the top two tickets. The senate will take a monthly vote of confidence for the Senate pro-tempo position. This vote will be the first Senate meeting of each month that the Senate meets, during the regular Senate meeting. The vote will be placed on the regular agenda under New Business. The vote will be by secret ballot and will be a simple yes or no for confidence in the current Senate pro-tempo. Simple majority will be decisive. If a no vote prevails, nominations will be taken from the floor and new elections will proceed following Senate pro-tempo election rules.

B. Duties: The Senate pro-tempo shall carry forth all duties as directed by vote of the Senate. The Senate pro-tempo shall preside at the Senate caucus. The Senate pro-tempo shall assign senators to ASISU sub-committees and make assignments for ad hoc Senate committees as deemed necessary. The pro-tem Senate pro-tempo shall orient senators and instruct them on their specific duties, such as office hours, and committee participation. Senate pro-tempo will attend the president's Cabinet meetings.

C. It is also necessary for the Senate pro-tempo to meet regularly with the president of the Senate for information and discussion on matters pertaining to the Senate outside of the Cabinet meeting. The Senate pro-tempo shall also enforce speaker and discussion time limits.
