Woman Student Entrepreneur of the Year 2018

All over campus, women are showing their commitment to innovation, proving they have what it takes to be a successful entrepreneur. There are many entrepreneurial women out there - in all colleges and disciplines. Their stories illustrate a path to success and obstacles one might encounter along the way.

In conjunction with the 2018 Women's Business Symposium hosted by the Idaho Small Business Development Center, a 'Woman Student Entrepreneur of the Year' will be named by CEED (ISU's Center for Entrepreneurship and Economic Development).

As a theme for nomination: This is a female student who exemplifies the spirit and tenacity of an entrepreneur. She is an innovator willing to carve her own path in the world.

The winning entrepreneur will be introduced and recognized at the 2018 Women's Business Symposium on Thursday, April 5, 2018 at the Shoshone Bannock Hotel and Event Center.

Nominations from across campus may be emailed to CEED via Jeff Street of the College of Business for submission at strejeff@isu.edu or Mailstop 8020.

The winning entrepreneur will be selected by a panel of College of Business Faculty and CEED affiliate directors and staff. See <http://www2.isu.edu/cob/ceed/> for information.

Please submit information about your candidate as outlined on the following page. Nominations are due by March 2, 2018.
