Automotive collision technicians are professionals who fix or replace the damaged parts of vehicle bodies and frames. Automotive refinishers prepare and paint various types of vehicles.

DEGREE OPTIONS
- Automotive Collision Repair Intermediate Technical Certificate: 1.5 years
- Automotive Refinishing Intermediate Technical Certificate: 1.5 years
- Automotive Collision Repair and Refinishing Advanced Technical Certificate: 2 years
- Automotive Collision Repair and Refinishing Associate of Applied Science: 2 years
- Bachelor of Applied Science: 4+ years

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES
- Auto body repair shops
- Motor vehicle manufacturers
- Marine boat manufacturing and repairs
- Motor vehicle dealers
- Insurance Claims adjusters
- Heavy truck and equipment repairs

Almost every program in the College of Technology meets regularly with respected industry partners to make sure that what is being taught in the classroom is exactly what industry needs. When you are a student, you can rest assured that you are developing the skills that are needed NOW.