Debate

This year's debate team added considerably to its already long list of forensic victories. With much research and background work behind them, they managed to put across their point and come out on top... or at least close to it.

Carl Larson and Larry Judd plan a new method of recourse.

James Rupp, Janice Reynolds and Jon Harwood... outstanding debaters.