Snake River students compete in a pumpkin filing

2008 PUMPKIN CHUCK RESULTS:

The annual Pumpkin Chuck was held Friday by the Snake River High School as a fundraiser for the school's football team. The event drew people from all over the area to watch the competition.

The winning pumpkin, weighing in at 140 pounds, was bought by the school's booster club. The second-place pumpkin weighed in at 120 pounds, and the third-place pumpkin weighed in at 100 pounds.

The school's football team will use the funds raised from the Pumpkin Chuck to pay for their upcoming games and equipment.

The event featured a live band, food trucks, and a pumpkin carving contest. The school's cheerleaders also performed a halftime show.

The Pumpkin Chuck is an annual tradition at the Snake River High School and attracts a large crowd each year. The event is sponsored by the school's booster club and raises funds for the football team.
