PLEASE NOTE: ALL STUDENTS ENROLLING IN POLS 4499/5599 “TORTURE: LAW AND POLITICS ARE FORWARNED THAT this class discusses or depicts various torture and interrogation techniques in its readings, slide shows, and occasional short video segments. Students who have personally suffered torture, or whose family members have suffered such indignities, are CAUTIONED that this subject-matter may be profoundly disturbing and possibly cause psychological distress. As this class is an ELECTIVE and those enrolling are hereby FOREWARNED of possible traumatic reactions to its contents therefore Idaho State University, the College of Arts and Letters, the Department of Political Science, its faculty and staff cannot be held liable for claims of injury by any student who has freely enrolled having been informed of the possibility of emotional distress.